NERVOUS DESPONDENT WOMEN

Find Relief in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Statements So Testify.

Plates, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my nervousness is better. I will recommend your medicines to all suffering women."

—Mrs. MARY HALSTEAD, Plates, Pa., Box 98.

Here is the report of another genuine case, which still further shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon.

Walcott, N. Dakota.—"I had inflammation which caused pain in my side, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even spoke to me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began to gain right away. I continued its use and now I am a well woman."

—Mrs. AMELIA DAHL, Walcott, N. Dakota.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

It is in diseases like whooping cough that the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy are most appreciated. It quiets the rough mucus and aids expectoration. It also renders the fits of coughing less frequent and less severe depriving the disease of all dangerous consequence. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

'LABOR' VOTE OF COHEN'S IS NOW SHRINKING

Candidate Out To Beat Dowsett Not Getting All That Is Claimed for Him

"I will get all the labor vote," declared Joe Cohen, who has announced himself an independent candidate for the senate. "I am out to beat Jack Dowsett, and I'm going to do it."

"Why are you out to beat Dowsett?" he was asked.

"Because I was sacrificed for Dowsett in the convention," said Cohen, though left to a vote of the convention on a secret ballot I would have won easily. He was the planters' choice. If I had stayed in I would have got the Kakaako vote."

Cohen was asked if he would bet on himself to win.

"I don't think there's any sucker in Honolulu who would bet on me to win," was his reply. He was then asked what would happen if he beats Dowsett.

"Well, I think Jim Coke will be elected if he's nominated by the Democrats today," said Joe. He said he thought Coke would be elected rather than A. J. Wirtz, also slated for a Bourbon nomination.

Shortly afterward a representative of the Star-Bulletin met Chas. Kaneoka, head of the poolas, or longshoremen's association, which has several hundred votes.

"It is true that the poolas have endorsed Joe Cohen, as has been stated," Kaneoka was asked.

"I should say not," said Kaneoka. "If the poolas had endorsed him, he would have been nominated at the convention. We haven't endorsed him and I don't think we're going to."

Cohen's "labor vote" appears to be shrinking under close examination.

OUTLINES PLANS FOR YEAR'S WORK

The religious work committee of the Y. M. C. A. met at a dinner yesterday evening in Cooke Hall, at which the plans and methods of the committee for the coming year were outlined. Nineteen members of the committee which will manage the religious work of the association were present.

Among the speakers were General Secretary Super, who spoke of the religious work from the association's point of view; Lloyd R. Killam, assistant general secretary, who gave a brief outline of the purposes and plans of the committee; the Rev. A. A. Ebersole, who spoke on the association work from the churches' point of view, and W. G. Hall, who presided at the dinner and explained the purpose of the meeting and its nature.

Those present at the banquet were W. G. Hall, R. H. Tren, G. H. Buttolph, A. A. Ebersole, E. T. Crase, A. F. Cooke, E. F. Tracy, H. W. Robinson, W. H. Soper, John Martin, R. R. Banks, F. L. James, William Rasmann, C. H. Tracy, M. G. Johnston, W. L. Howard, G. H. Tuttle, Paul Super and L. R. Killam.

The newcomers' club will resume its meetings next Sunday afternoon in Cooke Hall. Ed Towse will preside at the meeting and will lead the discussion.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Lyric Mandolin and Guitar Club will hold forth in the lobby, and at 4:45 the meeting will be called, to be followed by a fellowship supper in the cafeteria at 5:30. All have been invited to the meeting, which has been devised to bring strangers and old residents of the city together.

FOLLOWS COMRADE PREACHING PEACE

Touring the world during three years of tramping from Old England to New England and from Port Said to Nagasaki, K. S. Inui, who is half of the peace advocate mission, arrived in the city yesterday on the Korea. The other half of the mission, George Beadle, passed through here several weeks ago and made plans for the reception of his partner, who represented Japan, Beadle representing America. Both are graduates of the University of Michigan.

Mr. Inui will deliver two lectures on peace during his stay in the city, one of which is to be at the Japanese Y. M. C. A. in Japanese, and another in English before an American audience. Other addresses will probably be added to this list.

He has spoken before the Edinburgh Peace Congress and more or less over Europe and the south Asiatic coast from Arabia to China, he and Mr. Beadle having shipped as common sailors from London to Nagasaki, preaching their creed of world peace at every port they touched.

BAND CONCERT.

The Hawaiian Band will give a public moonlight concert this evening at Thomas' Square at seven-thirty o'clock. The program follows:
